

COUNTERFEIT 'ISRAEL'

A DANGEROUS PROPHETIC ILLUSION

Millions of Christian people in the West have a deeply sincere belief that the emergent Israeli State of the past seven decades is a wonderful fulfill of the Bible prophecy heralding the restoration of Israel, prior to the Second Advent of Jesus Christ. Although the peoples of the Zionist State are demonstrably not homogeneous racially and despite the fact that they are rooted in their rejection of Christ, the Messiah, it is widely believed by the evangelical Christian folk of the West, that this is just a phase preliminary to Israeli acceptance of Christ at His Return. The fact that 730,000 Palestinian Arabs were displaced when the militant Zionists took over in 1948 does not seem to matter very much to this school of prophetic teaching.

It is high time that this state of thought should be corrected. The interpretation of events put by these Christians might be well and fine except for one relevant point which those who relate this prophecy to the Israeli State have chosen to ignore. The fact is that the vast majority of Jewry in Palestine are not descended from the ancient Israelites and therefore do not come within the terms of the special protection of Almighty God, in their occupation of Palestine. The mere taking of the name 'Israel' really has nothing to do with it for those who are not Israelites by lineage. In point of fact it could become a curse upon those who use the divinely appointed name improperly.

OUR LORD'S OWN WORDS

In this we have the clear Scriptural record of our Lord's own words. He informed racially mixed Jewry as distinct from the true descendants of Judah of their failure to bring forth the fruits of righteousness. He said: "Therefore say I unto you. The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation [not a church] bringing forth the fruits thereof" (Matt. 21:43).

Within forty years following the crucifixion of Jesus, a military threat developed for the Jews of this period from which they fully expected to be delivered by God. An armed uprising was staged against Rome, but Divine intervention was not forthcoming and the Jewish nation was driven from Palestine. A stand was made at the mountain stronghold of Masada where, rather than give in to the Roman legions, the Jews died to the last man by their own hand. These people were no longer to be regarded as the people of the Kingdom or of the Prince, the Messiah as predicted by the prophet Daniel and as foreseen in our Lord's own prophecy. It is now common practice to regard the designations 'Israeli', 'Zionist', 'Jewish' and 'Israel' as synonymous, applicable to the Jewish people no matter what their racial origin. This is a serious, fundamental error leading to all manner of confusion when it comes to prophetic interpretation relating to events in these days.

JEWIS – A MIXED LINEAGE

It is now recognized by those informed on this question that the Jewish people are not a race as such, but rather a group of people drawn from differing races. By far the largest proportion are descendants of a South Russian, Turco-Mongol people, the Khazars (Chazars) who were converted in masse to Judaism during the eighth century, as some Jewish scholars themselves admit. The name 'Israel' cannot possibly apply to these people.

From the mixed lineage, now known as the Ashkenazim, came political Zionism. From this source there developed the political pressure which produced the Balfour Declaration of 2nd November, 1917. This coerced Britain as part of the real Israel order into handing over the Mandate for Palestine (in 1948) and snatched away the future peace of this vital region at the very moment that the Turkish desolation was being removed. Out of this has come the present bitter conflict between Arab and Jew. Surely it cannot now be considered reasonable for prophetic exponents in the West, to maintain their argument that the Israeli State was divinely ordained to be a "blessing to all the families of the earth." The true prophetic interpretation of the appearance of this counterfeit 'Israel' at this Age-end period is that it constitutes a 'barren fig tree' the tree which Jesus Christ cursed so that it withered (Matt. 21).

Christian teachers who have resisted the message which identifies the true Israel of God as revealed in the peoples of present-day Celto-Saxondom have thereby wrongly glorified the counterfeit Israel in Palestine, stand to be confounded before long.

GOD'S LAND COVENANT WITH ISRAEL

"When the most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel. For the LORD'S portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance." Deut. 32:8-9

ISRAEL'S LAND MUST CORRESPOND TO ISRAEL'S POPULATION

"If there is one promise made over and over in the unconditional Abrahamic Covenant, it is that Israel's population would explode in numbers, "as the sand on the seashore," and "as the stars of heaven," and "as the dust of the earth." Gen. 13:16; 15:5; 22:17; 28:14; 32:12; Hos. 1:10; Heb. 11:12. Since the national boundaries of Israel's tribes would be in proportion to their population, it is clear that the Abrahamic Covenant would not be fulfilled in the little land of Palestine. God needed to clear a pathway and open up a land, indeed a continent, to hold Israel's rapidly increasing populace. If we believe the Scripture promises of Israel's tremendous population growth during this age, we must locate the land that meets this requirement. When the House of Israel's tribes were ready to fulfill their prophetic destiny in the early pre-Christian centuries, God led them to a land in accord with their prophetic growth needs. Historic and Biblical evidence identifies Europe as that appointed place (2 Sam 7:10)."

by Pastor Jory S. Brooks

"We can conceive nothing more futile than to attempt to understand prophecy apart from the central theme of the Bible: The Israelite truth. The church has not taken Israel's place. The Jews are not the tribe of Joseph, with his birthright blessings and destiny. Those who reject the Anglo-Israel doctrine because it seems 'fanciful' are obliged to invent far more fanciful theories to explain how the church or the Jews can possibly inherit the promises made to the ten tribes."

By J.B. Harriman in Israel and the World Crisis

"It is therefore a major mistake to ascribe to modern Jews an Israelite role they have thus far failed to fulfil. They are not as numerous as the sand of the seashore and the stars of heaven; they do not possess the gates of their enemies; they have not "pushed the peoples to the ends of the earth" by their military might; and they have certainly not blessed the families of the world. All these functions have been fulfilled by the English speaking and northern European nations instead, marking them out with absolute certainty as the inheritors of the birthright promises to Israel.”

To believe that the Jews are Israel and the modern Zionist State as the Biblical fulfilment of Israel’s restoration is to limit God’s promises in the Abrahamic Covenant and the Birthright of Joseph.

Only in the Anglo-Saxon, Germanic and related people of Northwestern European descent (once known as Christendom) have the prophecies concerning the Abrahamic, Isaac, Jacob-Israel family been fulfilled.

THE NEW COVENANT PROMISED LAND OF PROPHECY

"THE ENDS OF THE EARTH" – GOD'S EXPANDED LAND COVENANT WITH ISRAEL

God's expanded land promise to Jacob was – "And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed." Gen. 28:14

"A MULTITUDE OF NATIONS"

"he [Manasseh] also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: but truly his younger brother [Ephraim] shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations." Gen. 48:19

The birthright blessing of Joseph was to push Jacob's seed westward to the ends of the earth which is the west coast of North America.

"His glory is like the firstling of his bullock, and his horns are like the horns of unicorns: with them he shall push the people together to the ends of the earth: and they are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Manasseh." Deut. 33:17

ISRAEL'S RESTORATION DURING THE CHRISTIAN NEW COVENANT ERA

"Now when she had weaned Loruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son. Then said God, Call his name Loammī: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God. Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God. Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel." Hosea 1:8-11

The once divorced, but now regathered twelve tribed House of Israel was promised to have an increase of population and land in which to dwell

"And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, Thou art our sister, be thou the mother of thousands of millions, and let thy seed possess the gate of those which hate them." Gen. 24:60

God promised Israel a new and permanent dwelling place under the Davidic Covenant

THE APPOINTED PLACE

"Moreover I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more." II Sam. 7:10

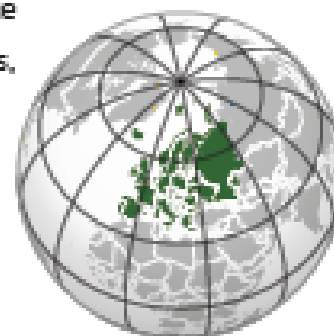

THE ORDAINED PLACE

"Also I will ordain a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more." I Chron. 17:9

THE PREPARED PLACE

"And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God." Rev. 12:6

"Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD. Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine lengthen thy cords, stakes; For thou the right hand and seed shall inherit make the desolate ited." Isa. 54:1-3

THE MIGRATIONS OF THE TWELVE TRIBES OF ISRAEL (THE CAUCASIANS)

by Pastor Charles A. Jennings

Supplement to the map, "The Re-formation of Israel in the West."

The mystery of the 'lost' tribes of Israel has occupied the minds of Bible scholars for many years. There have been three solutions set forth in an attempt to satisfactorily solve the mystery. One theory is the Jewish/Israel idea. It teaches that the Jews are the only lineal descendants of God's chosen people Israel and comprise all twelve tribes. Therefore, the prophecies and promises concerning Israel have either been, or yet will be fulfilled in the Jewish people. Another prevalent idea is the Church/Israel theory. It teaches that all the promises of material wealth and power have been spiritualized and fulfilled in the Christian Church. The third theory surmises that all the promises that God gave to Old Testament Israel have either been completely fulfilled or allowed to go unfulfilled by default. The above theories cannot be proven nor do they show the sovereignty of God in what He has promised He is faithful to perform.

The logical explanation as to the identification and location of the descendants of the ancient Israelites would be the people of Northwestern Europe. They include the Anglo-Saxon, Germanic, Scandinavian and kindred peoples. When the Lord first called Abram in Genesis 12:1-3 He said: "I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing: And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed."

Time and history has proven God's promise to have been fulfilled through the family of Isaac and Jacob/Israel. God told the people of Israel through Moses that due to their disobedience they would be expelled from the land given to their fathers (Deut. 4:25-31). In Hosea, he proclaims that God would scatter His people Israel, yet in scattering them they would become a great multitude in the midst of the earth. "Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God...Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her." (Hosea 1:10-11; 2:14-23) This was typified in the name of Jezreel, Hosea's eldest son. When God spoke to King David through the prophet Nathan, He promised a continuation of his lineage and throne. Among the often overlooked promises is that "Moreover I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as beforetime," (II Samuel 7:10). This 'appointed place' had to be another location other than the land in which they were then standing. He also said that He would 'plant them' and they would 'move no more.' This clearly indicated that there would be a re-location of the Israel people from their original promised land to a new land "that they may dwell in a place of their own."

ISRAEL'S CAPTIVITY AND MIGRATION

Most Bible students are aware that the Israelites were carried into captivity, but fail to see its tremendous prophetic significance. Between the years 745 B.C. and 721 B.C. there were invasions by Assyria against the Northern House of Israel, also known as the House of Joseph or Ephraim, when the people were captured and deported from their homeland. Shalmaneser "the king of Assyria did carry away Israel unto Assyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes: Because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed his covenant, and all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not hear them, nor do them" (II Kings 18:11-12).

Approximately eight years later the Assyrian invasion of the Southern Kingdom of Judah took place. "Now in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah did Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them" (II Kings 18:13). It was the smaller cities of Judah that were captured and the people taken into captivity, but the city of Jerusalem was left alone. Its captivity took place about 125 years later by the Babylonians. So it is evident that in the Assyrian captivity, all twelve tribes of Israel were represented as they went into "dispersion" (known as the diaspora). There is no Biblical or secular record that proves the Israelites ever returned to Palestine in vast numbers. Only a Levitical priest returned to the land to teach the new occupants the ways of the Lord (II Kings 17:24-28).

The location into which these deported Israelites were placed was in the cities of the Medes south of the Caucasus Mountains. When the Assyrian Empire began to weaken, many Israelites began to migrate in a northwesterly direction across the Caucasus range of mountains. They and their present day descendants are still known as Caucasians. Many of these Israelites migrated westward into the Mediterranean world and became citizens of the Greek and Roman empires. During the New Testament era, these were some of the Christian converts such as the Galatians, Colossians and Ephesians that the Apostle Paul visited and corresponded with.

The map shows the different routes taken by the Israelites when they left the area of the Caucasus Mountains and migrated into Europe over the next several hundred years. They were not known as "Israelites" during this westward trek, but by various names given to them by people they came in contact with. Later, as they settled in various parts of Europe, they took on the names by which we know the countries today. Collectively, they are known as the "Western Christian nations." As their migration continued, a representative number of the twelve tribes came to the North American Continent.

JACOB'S PROPHETIC BLESSING

In Jacob's prophetic blessing to the sons of Joseph to whom was given the birthright (1 Chron. 5:1-2) he said, "he [Manasseh] also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations" (Gen. 48:19). Who are these nations today? The two nations of Great Britain and the United States as brothers would fulfill the birthright blessings as promised by the Lord through Moses in Deuteronomy 33:13-17. These blessings include material abundance coupled with physical increase and a pioneering spirit of colonization.

What nations have historically blessed the world through their material wealth while at the same time proclaiming the good news of salvation to all mankind? The Lord said through the prophet Hosea, "And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in lovingkindness, and in mercies" (Hosea 2:19). The promise was that the Lord would betroth (marry) Israel again in 'righteousness' which was a promise of the righteousness found only in Israel's Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ.

It is evident from Scripture that God's people Israel would be Christianized in the latter days. "Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days" (Hosea 3:5). Jeremiah said the Lord would make the New Covenant with the same people He made the Old Covenant with. The New Covenant (Testament) made by Jesus Christ (Matt. 26:26-28) put the law of God into the heart of His people Israel. "Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah... After those days, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people..." (Jer. 31:31-34). The book of Hebrews shows this to be fulfilled in Jesus Christ (Heb. 8:6-13).

When the Lord Jesus was talking to the Pharisees He recognized that they had rejected Him as the 'cornerstone' of the Kingdom of God. Matthew records; "Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof. And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder. And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them" (Matt. 21:42-46). Jesus did not say that the Kingdom of God would be given to a 'church', but to a 'nation.' From God's Israel Covenant nations and Christian Israelite ministries, the Bible, the Gospel message and literature have gone around the world to bless every race. This has been in fulfillment to the mandate given to Israel.

The map "The Re-formation of Israel in the West" seeks to show, by a study of history, that a migration of the Israel people took place from the land of Assyria, whither they had been carried captive, past the waters of the Black Sea from Asia Minor, and then by various routes across the Continent of Europe, finally arriving in the isles and lands north and west of Palestine. "He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his law. Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, ye that go down to the sea, and all that is therein; the isles, and the inhabitants thereof. Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands" (Isaiah 42:4, 10, 12).

Jakob Abbadie, D.Th. a Swiss clergyman, (1654-1727) the most famous Christian apologist of his generation said; "Unless the ten tribes of Israel are flown into the air, or sunk into the earth; they must be those ten Gothic tribes that entered Europe in the fifth century, overthrew the Roman Empire and founded the ten nations of modern Europe."

EZEKIEL'S "ONE STICK"

FUTURE OR PRESENT AMONGST THE NATIONS?

BY ROBERT CARINGOLA

This article is intended for those who have a full grasp and understanding of the TWO HOUSES. The House of Israel and the House of Judah and all that is revealed in the glorious knowledge thereof. No doubt, if you are a regular subscriber of Truth In History, you are well prepared to examine the issue of Ezekiel's "dry bones" coming alive and becoming "one stick". I believe we can come to some conclusions that are verified by the scriptures and sanctified common sense.

It may seem strange that I digress immediately from the subject of the "one stick" to bring the reader into remembrance concerning Judah's participation with the Diaspora of the Northern Kingdom at the hands of the Assyrians.

2 KINGS 18:13 says: "Now in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah (that was the Royal King of the Davidic line in Judah, in Jerusalem) did Sennacherib King of Assyria, come up against all the fenced cities of Judah and took them."

What actually happened was that having taken ten-tribed Israel and deported them to Halah and Habor by the rivers of Gozan, the cities of the Medes, the Assyrians deported the inhabitants of 46 fenced cities of Judah (200,000 Judahites). That Bible account is borne out by the 'Black Obelisk' of Shalmaneser, which can be seen in the British Museum in the Assyrian Galleries. You will find the Assyrian evidence corroborates that along with our fore-fathers of the ten-tribed Israel, 200,000 Judahites went as well.

Those people migrated across the Crimes. They came through the land of Arsareth (modern Rumania), up the Danube Valley through Germany, through Scandinavia, to Britain. It wasn't just ten-tribed Israel but also the descendants of the 200,000 Judahites.

The reader is encouraged to read THE REMNANT OF JUDAH REVEALED IN GERMANY. The above three paragraphs are from this outstanding dissertation.

Now, let us read Ezekiel's vision, in chapter 37 verses 1-17, of life entering into the dry bones and the merging into "one stick" of "the whole House of Israel":

"The hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones, And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry. And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest. Again he said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live: And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone. And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them. Then said he unto me, Prophecy unto the wind, prophecy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live. So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army. Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts. Therefore prophecy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel. And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, And shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD. The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions: And join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand."

For those of you who believe that this miraculous resurrection of the "whole House of Israel" is yet to transpire in the future, well let's say sadly, due to Futurism and Dispensationalism, your eyes cannot see. Remember, this quick presentation is meat for true Israelites! However, there is hope!

Go to www.truthinhistory.org and get educated.

I now present two questions (parameters of thought) which must be addressed:

Have verses 16 & 17 occurred, and is it manifested on the face of the earth?

When was the breath of life and the wind of God given to Israel?

We have already seen, the often overlooked fact, that hundreds of thousands of Judahites were dispersed with the House of Israel. We, who have eyes to see, know that together they migrated north and west into Europe and the Isles evolving into the Covenant Christian Nations we have manifested on this earth – today! The nations of the Whole House of Israel are presently one stick in the hand of Christ. This stick has a terrible mandate which it has performed and will continue to perform on the face of the earth – God's battle axe:

"The portion of Jacob is not like them; for he is the former of all things: and Israel is the rod [one rod] of his inheritance: the LORD of hosts is his name. Thou art my battle axe [one axe] and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms;" Jeremiah 51:19-20

But, before they were joined as "one stick," they had to come to life. They had to be resurrected from their dead state. This was the mission of Christ, to bring the lost sheep of the House of Israel back to life. He was sent only to them! Matthew 15:24.

The life that Ezekiel saw was not natural life but rather spiritual. Remember, we are dealing with the language of the prophets. Is there spiritual life without the indwelling Spirit of God? Of course not. So we ask, when did Israelites, at Christ's time, receive the Holy Spirit? HOW WAS IT IMPARTED? Let's read the account in John chapter 20 verses 21-22 carefully:

*"Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost:"

Well, what do you make of this? And what of the "wind"? Ezekiel was commanded to "Prophecy unto the wind..." Could Acts 2 verses 1-4 be the fulfillment of Ezekiel's wind?

"And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance."
